Ordered to Disband.

Troublesome Times of Company B, of St. Albans.

St. Albans, April 15.—In pursuance of General Order No. 8 issued at the Adjutant General's office under date of April 12, Company B, 1st Inf., V. N. G., be disbanded and mustered out of the service of the state Tuesday, April 16. The reason for disbandment as stated in the order is for having fallen below the standard of efficiency.

About two months ago a general order was issued from the adjutant general's office which was practically the same as General Order No. 8, ordering the company to be disbanded for having fallen below the standard of efficiency. A citizens' meeting was called at that time and as a result of this meeting a petition was forwarded to the governor and adjutant general begging that the execution of the order be withheld pending an investigation. At this meeting a citizens' committee consisting of F. C. Smith, chairman, Col. Frank L. Greene, Capt. H. E. Perkins, N. N. Post, and J. J. Thompson was appointed to investigate and confer with the military authorities. This committee together with a committee from Co. B, consisting of Q. M. Sgt. Charles E. Pell, Sgt. H. J. Babcock, Capt. elect J. A. Evans, Prof. J. F. Sullivan and Prin. F. E. Pierce, held a conference with Adj. Gen. W. H. Gilmore and Col. J. G. Esley and as a result General Order No. 5 was rescinded and the company commander, 2nd Lieutenant F. B. Ashland, was ordered to receive the company and put the company in such a condition as would gratify the citizens' committee and satisfy the military authorities. The citizens' committee was instructed to keep an eye on the company and report to the military authorities at some future date. This committee did make their report last week and the result of this report is the issuance of General Order No. 8.

ARRAIGNED

IN COURT

Barre People Who Are Charged With Adultery

DEMAND EXTRADITION

Agnes Everett and Ceberson Gonyo, Who Were Arrested in Leominster, Mass., Will Be Held For a Week Pending Arrival of Papers.

Leominster, Mass., April 15.—Mrs. Agnes Everett and Ceberson Gonyo were arraigned before Judge Harry C. Bassett in the police court Saturday as fugitives from justice. Probable cause was found for holding them for the demand of the officials of the state of Vermont, in which state warrants have been issued for their arrest on charges of adultery. The woman's bail was placed at $500 and that of the man at $200. The case was continued one week to permit arrangements being made for requisition papers.

The parties were arrested Friday on the request of Frank T. Tracy, sheriff of Washington county, Vermont, with headquarters at Montpelier. The woman was found by Inspector Bernard H. Flaherty of the Fitchburg police force at a house she was preparing for occupancy, near the F. & L. car barn. The man was arrested here by Officer James Lynch.

At the hearing, Attorney M. Fred O'Connell of Fitchburg appeared for the government and Attorney James H. P. Dyer for defendants. Evidence was introduced tending to show that the parties were the persons named in a complaint issued by the court at Barre, Vt., charging them with adultery. It was learned from Sheriff Tracy that the woman formerly conducted a boarding house at Barre and that Gonyo was a boarder. Mrs. Everett is the mother of three children, whose ages range from a few months to 13 years. The father did not live with the mother at the time of her departure from Barre about two weeks ago for the purpose of locating in this vicinity.

Mrs. Everett first stopped at the home of her sister, Mrs. Peter Gilbert of Elm street, but had just arranged to have her children join her in a home of her own. Her youngest child occupied the cell with her in the police station Friday evening.

When first arrested, both parties seemed willing to return with Sheriff Tracy to Vermont without requisition papers. Later they changed their minds and Attorney Dyer was retained.

FOUGHT IN TWO WARS.

James A. Templeton of Worcester, Aged 89.

Montpelier, April 15.—Although 89 years of age and in failing health, James A. Templeton, a veteran of two wars, still retains his faculties and well remembers the incidents of the strenuous campaigns in which he has taken part.

Mr. Templeton was born in Montpelier. At the outbreak of the Mexican war he enlisted and was in all the engagements in which his regiment took part. After the close of the war he lived in Worcester, engaging in farming and lumbering. In 1863 Mr. Templeton heard the call of his country and enlisted again in troop C, 1st Vermont cavalry, serving until 1865.

Mr. Templeton was twice married but has no children. The old gentleman has taken great care of his health. In his prime he was the strongest man in all the country round and had a wide reputation as a wrestler. His gigantic frame testifies to a once magnificent physique and the fact that he has attained to his present age in spite of the experiences which he has passed through speak eloquently of his careful habits.

REVISED "AS YE SOW."

Rev. Albert E. George Declares It Is a Moral Play, One For Good.

"A strong play—strong in the manner of presenting—the contrast of the good and the evil sides of life, and strong in making one sensitive of the influence of the good side. It is a clean play. It indicates how well the stage can become a moral agent in its own unique way. Why should not the stage be a moral agent? The old prejudice has died away and we are not again today about its teaching power. It is there, and only needs a play like this to call it forth. The Christian ministry with its influence in a community is well set forth. It is at its best, and as it should be presented to indicate its mission in the world. Nothing is said or done to mar its usefulness. The reclaiming of lost character is so well woven into one part of the play that you become enthusiastic at the practical test of the Golden Rule. A play that can do that and do it so well deserves the praise of all. This is said with no idea that his details are exactly accurate, but you could easily overlook any deficiency for what it makes so prominent. It is a dramatic sermon. It preaches while it pleases you with its merit. The church and the drama have a common work. They have lived too long in separate fields. They are to be done neighbors. When Henry Ward Beecher allowed his novel 'Notwood' (some years ago) to be presented on the stage, some of thought that these two forces would come closer together. The attempt failed, but now it need not fail. 'As Ye Sow' is a play everyone should see, and in seeing rejoice to know that a Christian can go to the theatre and can, in the incidents of a dear old Cape Cod life, find the same principles that the pulpit has stood for so long.

Snowstorm in Boston.

Boston, April 15.—After a day's respite from wintry conditions, Boston again suffered from abnormal weather for April. Snow began to fall before day-break and continued throughout the forenoon, with the temperature only slightly above the freezing point. This is the fourth snowstorm in the vicinity this month.

EVERYBODY'S FRIEND.

"Uncle" Elisha Mattoon of Chelsea Vigorous and Happy.

Chelsea, April 15.—Elisha Mattoon, vigorous and happy at 93, is a source of pride to this town, where he has lived nearly all his long life with the exception of a few years spent at Vershire. Mr. Mattoon is a retired farmer. He was born on a farm and followed agricultural pursuits until very recently. To his manner of living, to his total abstinence from tobacco and liquor and to Vermont climate he attributes his longevity.

The old gentleman has voted in every presidential election since attaining his majority, with one exception. He has never known a sick day. He enjoys living and anticipates that many more years will be added to 93 before going to his reward.

Mr. Mattoon writes a firm legible hand, reads the daily papers thoroughly and without the aid of glasses and is well informed on all important topics of the day. Throughout this and neighboring towns he is a well-known character, where his counsel is often sought. He is an encyclopedia of information on all local events of the past 75 years. Important happenings during which period are rarely forgotten by the old gentleman.

Above all stands Mr. Mattoon's unimpeachable character and integrity. To the children of the town the truthfulness of "Uncle Elisha Mattoon" hardly takes second rank to that of George Washington. He is everybody's friend and his admirers all hope sincerely that he may be long permitted to shed his influence upon the community.

CARRIED OVER DAM.

Howland Gives Drowned at Concord, N. H.

Concord, N. H., April 15.—Howland Gives, 19 years old, employed at the silver factory of W. B. Durgin & Co., of this city, was drowned in the Contoocook river at 7 o'clock Saturday night.

Harry Baker, Gives' companion, had a very narrow escape. The two young men were canoeing on the river, which is running bank high with a very swift current. As the canoe reached the dam opposite Contoocook river park it was overturned. Baker clung to the craft and reached the shore after a hard struggle, while Gives could not battle with the current and was carried over the dam. Gives came here from Oregon about three months ago.

FEW KNOW THIS.

A well known specialist has stated that kidney and bladder troubles of all kinds are in nearly every instance readily relieved by taking a few doses of the following simple home-made mixture:

Fluid extract dandelion, one-half ounce; compound Kargon, one ounce; compound syrup sarsaparilla, three ounces.

The dose is a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. These ingredients can be obtained at any good pharmacy, and are mixed by shaking well in a bottle. Victims of kidney, bladder and urinary diseases of any kind should not hesitate to make this prescription up and try it. It comes highly recommended and doesn't cost much to prepare.

If not troubled now, save this for future use.

PEARY IS CONFIDENT HE CAN REACH NORTH POLE

Says If He Does Not Get There This Time It Will Be Because Fate Is Impossible.

Portland, Me., April 15.—Commander Peary, who had just arrived from Boston at his summer home at Eagle Island in Casco bay, said he had received notification of the three years' leave of absence granted him by the navy department and positively will start on his next polar trip about July 1.

He will go in the steamer Roosevelt, which is now undergoing repairs at New York, and expects to arrive among the ice fields the middle of July.

The equipment and crew, he said, would be practically the same as on his last expedition. He will buy 200 dogs when he arrives in Greenland and take them along with him. He anticipates that the same length of time will be required as on the 1905 trip.

He stated that sufficient money has been raised for repairing the Roosevelt, and that the necessary fund of $100,000 to equip the expedition will be raised before July 1. He leaves to-morrow for New York.

"In relation to my plans," said Commander Peary, "I shall follow, almost to the letter, those of my last trip. I guess it won't be necessary for me to go into details about those, as they are too well known. I shall go as far north as possible with the Roosevelt and after securing the dogs from my Eskimo friends I shall start over the big ice fields by sleds. While en route we will establish subsupply stations or 'caches' to be used in case the progress we carry should give out. The main source of supply will be the Roosevelt."

"I am confident that I will be successful in this search for the long-sought goal. At any rate, it will be the supreme effort of my life, and if I am not successful, I may be ready to say that the pole is beyond the reach of man."

PASSED BY THE ASSEMBLY.

New York Champlain Commission to Be Appointed Soon.

Albany, N. Y., April 15.—The resolution introduced in the state senate by Senator Henry W. Bill, of Buffalo, providing for a New York-Lake Champlain international commission, has been adopted by the assembly and now goes to the governor, who will sign it, as he has expressed his approval of the measure.

It is expected that the members of the commission will be appointed in a few days.

Patrons of a Bakery Lunch

A study of a sociological problem from a worker's point of view is always highly instructive, and if at all well done it furnishes a deal of entertainment aside from its more serious discussion of the problem in hand. For such a study must deal with men and women and episodes from real life. Maud Younger, in her "Diary of an Amateur Waitress," the second installment of which appears in the April McClure's, gives us many glimpses of New York's quick lunch restaurants.

We quote the following extract from her description of the rush hour in a bakery lunch place as an example of a good literary snap-shot, that also contains sociological data:

"I made my accustomed dive after a girl who knew something about the business."

"A maneuver there wants something that sounds like coffee and horns," I said to her.

"Then they are," she said and pointed to some crescent rolls, "five with an order."

"I returned with the 'horns' and found ten men waiting to be served. A feeling of helpless desperation came over me, as they all clamored at once for their lunches. The rush hour was there. They shoved back the dishes in front of them, there were others standing in 'dead-end' lines. Before I had served my line waiting for seats. As soon as one man finished, another took his place. They all ate on top of the debris. Once, the situation grew desperate, each one wanting to be served first, all giving their orders at once, so that I could not extricate anything from the jumble. It was so absolutely petrifying that I could not do anything. I sat wood still and laughed. The smile went around the table, and they subsided and let me take one order at a time. No one was cross when I gave him the wrong thing. They were mostly ten cent customers, one dish live, and a drink five-cent men, and they wore their hats."

Had He That?

On one occasion in an English court a prisoner was brought in for sentence who had been convicted of being a common gambler. He appeared in a loud checked yellow and black suit, with red necktie and a large paste diamond horseshoe pin. The judge from under his beetling brows looked fiercely down upon him from the bench and remarked with intense scorn: "I sentence you to pay a fine of fifty dollars."

"That's all right, judge," interrupted the prisoner, nonchalantly thrusting his hand into his trousers; "got it in my pants pocket."

—and to three years and six months in state's prison," continued his Honor, with a slight twinkle in his eye. "I'd say you got that in your pants pocket!" —The Bellman.

JEFFERSON DAY MEETINGS

Dinner of Democratic Clubs in New York

SEN. RAYNER, COL HARVEY,

Among the Orators of the Occasion—Former Outlines a Democratic Platform—Latter Scores the President.

New York, April 15.—Democratic societies and clubs in all parts of Greater New York Saturday night celebrated "Jefferson day." The Democratic club held its annual banquet at the Waldorf Astoria; the woman's democratic club of the city met at the Hoffman house; the Independence league had as its guests William Randolph Hearst and Attorney General Jackson among others and other organizations made the evening one memorable to the name of Jefferson.

The principal speaker at the democratic club's banquet was Senator Isidor Rayner of Maryland. He responded to the toast, "What should be the proper policy of the democratic party and what is true democracy?" He was listened to intently by several hundred guests. Former Supreme Court Justice Morgan J. O'Brien presided at the dinner, and the speakers included Martin W. Littleton, Col. George Harvey and others.

At the guest's table were a number of prominent persons, including Charles F. Murphy, Controller Metz, former Judge Augustus Van Wyck, John W. Keller, President Ahern of Manhattan borough, Perry Belmont, Herman Ridder and Congressman William Sulzer.

Colonel Harvey in the course of his speech before the Democratic club said:

"We are told that a President chosen by the people is immune from criticism and that he is a thing apart, not a mere executive officer, but a tribune enveloped in an order of sanctity which safeguarded the days of old. It is a new idea. Criticism of official conduct has been a prerogative of the people. Not so now. 'The heavy hand of fear rests upon the land. The mighty organization known as the Republican party has become a mere personal machine. Its former leaders have drawn back affrightedly to their corners. Their wishes are no longer regarded; their consultation is no longer desired; obedience to edict is not only exacted from but enforced upon them.'"

Colonel Harvey then denounced those Democrats "who eat the crumbs of patronage from the hand that smote them and lick the boot whose impact they have felt."

He referred to the "peerless leader who hobbles like a cripple in the wake of his successful rival, gathering as he goes the few scraps that are left of his own fallacies."

FAMINE WORSE IN CHINA.

Fever and Smallpox in Addition to Lack of Food.

New York, April 15.—Telegrams received by the relief committee at Shanghai Saturday from a number of additional famine districts report that the distress is growing worse. Some of the sufferers are contending against fever or smallpox in addition to lack of food. Many startling incidents are recorded, such as a father knocking his head on the ground as a sign of thankfulness for the relief brought by a visitor, the man being too weak to rise. A woman with three children was found weeping on a bridge, where her husband had fallen dead from starvation. A husband, wife and their five children were discovered in a house, starving to death huddled together, clothed in rags and eating the bark of trees, their only food. The gratitude of the poor people who are given relief is very touching.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF NEW YORK (Incorporated)

STANDARD OIL QUILTY

And is Liable to a Fine of $29,960,000.

VERDICT SATURDAY NIGHT

Federal Jury Finds That It Received Rebates From the Chicago and Alton Railroad on 1463 Courts.

Chicago, April 15.—The Standard Oil Company, which has been on trial for six weeks before Judge K. M. Landis of the United States District Court, Saturday night was found guilty on 1463 counts of receiving rebates from the Chicago and Alton railroad on shipments of oil from Whiting, Ind., to East St. Louis, Ill.

There were originally 1903 counts in the indictment, 440 counts failing on errors. If the verdict is sustained the oil company is liable to a maximum fine of $29,960,000, as the Elkins law, which the indictment charged the company violated, provides a fine of $1,000 to $20,000 for each offence. Pending a new trial, which John F. Miller, chief counsel for the defence, announced would be made immediately, no penalty will be fixed by the court.

BLIZZARD WEST AND SOUTH.

Ten Inches of Snow in Wisconsin—Fruit Damaged in Missouri.

Chicago, April 15.—A blizzard was general throughout Wisconsin Saturday. Green Bay reports a fall of ten inches of snow, equalling the record of April, 1904. Street car service and telephone and telegraph lines were hampered.

The mercury was eight degrees below freezing throughout northwest Missouri Friday night, and growers say fruit of all varieties has been greatly injured. Small and large fruit gardens were injured at Wichita, Kans., by a heavy frost and a temperature that stood at four below the freezing point for hours. Freezing or close to freezing temperature was general throughout the Ohio valley, as well as for several previous nights. It is feared that fruit of all varieties has either been badly damaged or entirely destroyed.

Snow fell for several hours at Nashville, Tenn., yesterday. Advisers from southern Kentucky and north Alabama indicate that early fruit has been killed by the snow and cold.
